The BSCB has undertaken case reviews and lesson learned reviews over the last year and this session covers one of the key recurring themes: how professionals challenge each other in order to keep children and young people safe.

This session will include

- Launch of the new procedure for “Resolving Multi Agency Professional Disagreements and Escalation”
- Improving written and verbal communication between professionals to allow a shared understanding of level of harm.
- A Real Safeguarding Story – case study and exercise

Target Audience

Multi-agency practitioners and their managers working with children and young people.
