

Safeguarding Week

It's everybody's business

“My Marriage my choice”
sharing Research findings and resources

Thursday 28 June 2018

2.30pm – 4.00pm

Margaret McMillan Tower, BD1 1NN

Target audience

Multi-agency frontline staff and managers who work with adults with learning disabilities and/or young people with learning disabilities during transition to adult services.
Trainers, Principal Social Workers, Safeguarding Advisors.

Presenters

Assistant Professor Rachael Clawson and Dr Anne Patterson, Ann Craft Trust /
University of Nottingham

Event details

Exploring Forced Marriage of adults with learning disabilities and developing knowledge, policy and practice to keep people safe focused on findings from the “My Marriage My Choice” research project which aims to raise awareness of forced marriage in order that all of those who are involved in the education, care and support of individuals who cannot effectively consent to any such undertaking, might be empowered to recognise forced marriage as such and respond appropriately.

A number of short films which have been produced as part of the research project will be shared these are useful resources which can be cascaded to further raise awareness of this issue with professionals and public.

To book

- Internal Council Staff: <https://goo.gl/sKQYTm>
- External staff: <https://goo.gl/nhnXDC>