

Safeguarding Week

It's everybody's business

Bradford Rape Crisis & Sexual Abuse Survivors Service
With Sharing Voices Bradford and White Ribbon Campaign

Proactively working with men to prevent sexual violence

Thursday 28th June 2018
9:30-12:30

Banqueting Suite, City Hall, Bradford, BD1 1UH

Speakers:

- Alyas Karmani, Sharing Voices Bradford
- Cllr Richard Dunbar and Cllr Ralph Berry, White Ribbon Campaign
- Asumani Susho, Independent Gender Based Violence Prevention Facilitator
- Lorna Mundy, Bradford Rape Crisis & Sexual Abuse Survivors Service

Participants will:

- Understand more about the social formation of masculinities
- Explore the impact of masculinities on relationships
- Consider approaches and challenges to engaging men in sexual violence prevention
- Learn from local and national practice, including White Ribbon Campaign, work with new communities and work with male perpetrators of sexual violence

A free, interactive session relevant to Health, Local Authority, Education, Probation, Voluntary Sector, parents and anyone involved in the lives of young men.

To book a place

Please email lorna.mundy@brcg.org.uk